Gaston Health at Home® Research Studies

Manufacturing Plant in North Carolina

N = 28
Time Period – 6 months

- 12 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid a doctor visit. At an average doctor visit cost of $100, the savings was $1200.
- 11 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid an ER visit. At an average ER visit cost of $550, the savings was $6050.
- 9 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid a day of missed work. At an average cost of $140 per day, the savings was $1260.
- The total savings was $8510 or $304 per person. The Return on Investment (ROI) was 43 to 1.

Emergency Department Over-users at North Carolina Hospital

N = 25
Time Period – 6 months

- 12 recipients stated Health at Home helped them avoid a doctor visit. Using an average doctor visit cost of $100, the savings was $1200.
- 15 recipients stated Health at Home helped them avoid a trip to the emergency department. At an average ER cost of $550, the total savings was $8250.
- 4 recipients stated Health at Home helped them avoid a day of missed work. At an average cost of $140 per day, the savings was $560.
- The total savings was $10,010 or $400 per person. The Return on Investment (ROI) was 57 to 1.

Medicaid Recipients in North Carolina

N = 14
Time Period – 6 months

- 11 recipients stated Health at Home helped them avoid a doctor visit. Using an average doctor visit cost of $100, the savings was $1100.
- 9 recipients stated Health at Home helped them avoid a trip to the emergency department. At an average ER cost of $550, the savings was $4950.
- 5 recipients stated Health at Home helped them avoid a day of missed work. At an average cost of $140 per day, the savings was $700.
- The total savings was $7575 or $541 per person. The Return on Investment (ROI) was 62 to 1.

Company of Professionals

N = 108
Time Period – 6 months

- 25 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid a doctor visit. At an average cost of $100 per doctor visit, the savings of $2500.
- 11 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid an ER visit. At an average ER visit cost of $550, the savings was $7150.
- 12 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid a day of missed work. At an average cost of $140 per day, the savings was $1680.
- The total savings was $9650 or $89 per employee. The Return on Investment (ROI) was 13 to 1.

North Carolina Hospital

N = 134
Time Period – 6 months

- 58 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid a doctor visit. At an average doctor visit cost of $100, the savings was $5800.
- 30 employees responded that Health at Home helped them avoid an ER visit. At an average ER visit cost of $550, this came out to a savings of $16,500.
- 31 employees stated Health at Home helped them avoid a day of missed work. At an average cost of $140 per day, the savings was $4340.
- The total savings was $26,640 or $199 per employee. The Return on Investment (ROI) was 28 to 1.